

MacDougall's Terms & Conditions of Sale – 2023

1. All contractual rights and obligations made between vendors, bidders and MacDougall Arts Ltd in respect of an auction conducted by MacDougall Arts Ltd (an “auction”) are subject to these Terms and Conditions of Sale.
2. In these Terms and Conditions of Sale, MacDougall Arts Ltd. – who act as agents for the vendor unless specified otherwise in the catalogue for the auction in question – are called “MacDougall’s”, or “us”; and the representative of MacDougall Arts Ltd. conducting the auction is called “The Auctioneer”.

Hammer price

3. All bids for a lot at an auction shall be considered an offer for that lot, which the Auctioneer can accept or reject in accordance with clauses 9 and 15 of these Terms and Conditions. The Hammer price means the highest bid accepted by the Auctioneer for the lot. The purchase price payable by the buyer shall be the aggregate of the Hammer price and the Buyer’s premium (plus any VAT chargeable on the Hammer price and Buyer’s premium, whenever applicable). The NET of VAT Buyer’s premium is at a rate of 27% on up to and including £800,000; 20% on any amount in between £800,000 and £3,800,000 inclusive; and at a rate of 14.5% on any remaining amount above £3,800,000 of the Hammer price. All prices are quoted in UK Pounds Sterling. The Buyer’s Premium and all other charges payable to us by the Buyer are subject to VAT at the prevailing rate, currently 20%.

VAT

4. Lots are normally sold under the UK Auctioneers Margin Scheme. Input tax deduction has not been and will not be claimed in respect of such lots. The charge for the Buyer’s premium will be shown on the invoice inclusive of VAT on the charges described above, which must not be detailed separately and may not be reclaimed as input tax.
5. For lots marked with a dagger (†) normal VAT rules apply, and the standard rate of 20% VAT will be charged on both Hammer price and Buyer’s premium.
6. Ω symbol indicates 20% Import Duty Charge applies.
7. Items marked with an asterisk (*) have been imported from outside the UK. 5% will be added to the Hammer price to cover Import VAT. UK VAT registered buyers should note that neither this 5% nor the VAT on the Buyer’s premium can be refunded or claimed against VAT. Buyers from outside the UK who intend to ship their purchases outside the UK within three months of sale should tell MacDougall Arts at time of payment. For them, the VAT charge included in the premium and the 5% Import charge on asterisked lots will be treated as a deposit, refundable on presentation of documentary proof of export outside the UK within statutory deadline of three months after the date of sale.
8. Items marked with the "©" symbol are stored outside the UK. Buyers collecting purchases in the UK should note that an additional 5% Import Duty will be due for clearing the work into free circulation if shipped into the UK. It's the sole responsibility of the buyer to comply with all export and import regulations relating to his purchases and also to obtain any relevant export and/or import licence(s). The need for export/import licences varies from country to country and bidders should familiarise themselves with all relevant local requirements before placing bids.

Droit de suite (Artist’s resale right)

9. Some works will be subject to Droit de Suite (Artist’s Resale Right) and will be indicated with a “$” mark in the catalogue or otherwise notified. This is a royalty payable to a qualifying artist (citizens of EU and EEA countries) each time a work is re-sold during the artist’s lifetime and to their descendants for 70 years after the artist’s death. Buyers will be charged an amount equal to this resale royalty where it applies. These resale royalties are not subject to VAT and do not apply when the Hammer price is less than 1,000 Euros. Invoices are normally issued in Pounds

0.25 %	Over 500,000
	To a maximum of 12,500 Euros

Guaranteed Property

10. A minimum price has been guaranteed to the seller for lots marked with the symbol “○”. This guarantee may be provided by MacDougall’s, by a third party or jointly by MacDougall’s and a third party. Third parties providing all or part of a guarantee benefit financially if a guaranteed lot is sold successfully and may incur a loss if the sale is not successful.

Bidding

11. Bidding at an auction is regulated at the sole discretion of the Auctioneer, who reserves the right to reject any bid.

12. In the case of lots upon which the vendor has placed a reserve, the Auctioneer shall have the right to bid on behalf of the vendor, but no higher than the reserve. MacDougall Arts Ltd., its Directors, its staff, or its consultants may own or have a beneficial interest in a lot being sold. All lots are offered subject to a Reserve Price agreed in writing with the vendor; it shall be no higher than the low estimate of the Hammer price. MacDougall’s have absolute discretion to refuse admission to the auction.

13. If instructed, MacDougall’s will execute bids for prospective buyers. This service is free. Lots will always be purchased as cheaply as is allowed by such other bids and reserves as are on the Auctioneer’s books. In the event of identical bids, the earliest will take precedence. There must always be a maximum limit indicated, i.e. the amount to which the buyer would bid if attending the auction in person. «Buy» or unlimited bids will not be accepted. Commission bids placed by telephone are accepted at the client’s risk. All written telephone and commission bidding requests should be completed by twenty-four hours before the sale. MacDougall Arts Ltd. does not accept any liability if for any reason you do not receive a phone call during the sale and is not responsible for inadvertently failing to execute bids or for errors relating to execution of bids, including computer-related errors. MacDougall’s executes absentee bids as a convenience for clients and will try to purchase these lots for the lowest possible price, considering the reserve and other bids. If identical absentee bids are left, MacDougall’s will give precedence to the first one received.

14. Notwithstanding clause 19, the buyer and the vendor shall enter into the contract for the buyer to buy and the vendor to sell the lot in question upon the fall of the Auctioneer's Hammer.

Online Bidding

15. As long as you have pre-registered to bid and your online account is in order, you will be able to place bids on Lots during the bidding period indicated for each Lot, either by placing your next bid using the increments indicated or by placing a maximum bid to indicate the most you would be prepared to bid (excluding Buyer’s Premium and applicable taxes which would be in addition to your bid). If you leave a maximum bid, the system will automatically place incremental bids on your behalf in response to other bids, until either there are no other bids, or your maximum bid has been reached. If you attempt to place a bid which is lower than another bid already placed for that Lot, then your bid will be rejected, and you will be offered the opportunity to place a higher bid. No bids will be accepted after Lot Closing for the Lot concerned.

16. We reserve the rights to postpone completion of the Sale of any Lot at our discretion while we complete our registration and identification enquiries, and to cancel the Sale of any Lot if you are in breach of your warranties as Buyer, or if we consider that such Sale would be unlawful or otherwise cause liabilities for the Seller or MacDougall's or be detrimental to MacDougall's reputation.

17. Lots purchased online may attract an additional charge for this service in the sum between 1.5% and 5% of the Hammer price plus VAT, if any, at the rate imposed.

18. During Online Bidding MacDougall's will not be liable for service delays, interruptions or other failures to make a bid caused by losses of internet connection, fault or failure with the website or bidding process, or malfunction of any software or system, computer or mobile device.

Bidder Registration and Identification (AML Compliance)

19. Prior to taking part in MacDougall's auction, all potential private and corporate buyers should complete MacDougall's Clients' Registration form (CRF) and supply documents to comply with the UK Anti-Money Laundering regulations. Bidders act as principals unless they have prior written consent from MacDougall's to bid as an agent for another party. Bidders are personally liable for their bid and are jointly and severally liable with their principal if bidding as agent.

20. If you are a new client at MacDougall's or have not recently updated your registration details with us, you must pre-register to bid with us in advance.

21. We reserve the right at our discretion to request further information in order to complete our clients' Due Diligence verification and to decline to register any person or company as a Bidder if they refuse to comply with MacDougall's request. MacDougall's also reserves the right to cancel the sale if the requested documents are not supplied by a successful bidder within 7 days the date of the sale. Unless otherwise specified in the Online Sales Terms, you must be over the age of 18 to bid in this Sale.

22. In no circumstances may you, or any other person on your behalf, bid on items which have been consigned by you for sale.

23. You must keep your online account details including your unique customer number strictly confidential and must not permit any third party to use or access your account.

Economic Sanctions Disclaimer

24. The United States, the United Kingdom and the European Union maintain economic and trade sanctions against targeted foreign countries, groups and organisations. There may be restrictions on the export from the United States, the United Kingdom and the European Union of certain items into the sanctioned countries, including Burma, Cuba, Iran, North Korea, Sudan, Russia and Belarus.

The current EU/UK sanctions relating to Russia prohibit the export, supply or delivery (whether directly or indirectly) of certain categories of luxury goods to persons connected with Russia and/or for use in Russia. By placing a bid in this sale, you warrant to MacDougall's that you are not resident in, nor will you supply any purchased lot to Russian Federation or to any person connected with Russia and/or for use in Russia. Please note you may be asked to verify your personal details and/or provide further information in form of Due Diligence Questionnaire, if we have reason to believe that you may be affected by these sanctions. We reserve the right to refuse your registration to bid in the sale and/or to complete a purchase if we have reasonable cause to suspect that these sanctions apply.

Payment and Shipping

25. Legal title to a lot shall not pass to the buyer until MacDougall's receive the full purchase price for the lot in cleared funds.

26. Unless MacDougall's agree with the buyer otherwise:

(a) the lot must be paid for in full within 7 (seven) calendar days of the sale; and

(b) the buyer must remove the purchased lot(s), at their expense, within 21 (twenty-one) calendar days following the sale;

27. MacDougall's are not obliged to release a lot to a buyer until title to that lot has passed, but any earlier release will not affect the passing of title.

28. To some extent an export licence is required in order to remove a lot from the United Kingdom. It is Buyer's sole responsibility to comply with all export and import regulations relating to the purchases and also to obtain any relevant export and/or import licence(s). Export licences are issued by Arts Council England and application forms can be obtained from its Export Licensing Unit.

The detailed provisions of the export licensing arrangements can be found on the ACE website:

<https://www.artscouncil.org.uk/supporting-arts-museums-and-libraries/export-licensing>

The need for import licences varies from country to country and you should acquaint yourself with all relevant local requirements and provisions. The refusal of any import or export licence(s) or any delay in obtaining such licence(s) shall not permit the rescission of any Sale nor allow any delay in making full payment for the Lot.

Generally, for information and estimates on domestic and international shipping as well as export licenses please contact our Shipping Department at shipping@macdougallauktion.com

29. If a buyer fails to pay for or remove a lot in accordance with clauses 25 to 28 above, MacDougall's shall be entitled at their absolute discretion to exercise one or more of the following rights, unless agreed otherwise with the buyer.

(a) To rescind the contract in respect of that lot.

(b) To store the lot or cause it to be stored at their own premises or warehouses elsewhere at the sole expense and risk of the buyer, and to release the lot only after payment in full of the purchase price, accrued storage and haulage charges and all other costs incurred by MacDougall's in connection with the lot.

(c) To charge interest and storage charges. Interest is charged at 10% per annum, and storage charges at 50 pounds per lot per week. However, these charges will be waived if payment is received by the 7-day contractual deadline and the purchases are collected within 21 calendar days after the sale.

(d) With seven days' Notice to the Buyer to resell the lot or cause it to be resold by public or private sale, with estimates and reserves set at our discretion. Any deficiency in the purchase price attending such resale (after giving credit for any payment and after deducting full costs incurred in connection with the lot) to be made good by the defaulting buyer, any surplus (after retention by MacDougall's of the premium) to be paid to the vendor.

(e) Commence legal proceedings on behalf of the vendor to recover the purchase price and other expenses for that lot.

(f) Release the name and address of the buyer to the vendor to enable the vendor to commence the legal proceedings against the buyer.

(g) MacDougall's shall in all circumstances be entitled to exercise a lien against any property belonging to the buyer or where the buyer has acted as an agent any property belonging to the buyer's principal which is in the possession of or in the control of MacDougall's in respect of any debt howsoever arising owed by the buyer (or the buyer's principal) to MacDougall's notwithstanding that the value of the property exceeds the amount owed to MacDougall's.

(h) MacDougall's may set off any sums owed by a buyer or its principal against any money owed by MacDougall's to the buyer or its principal notwithstanding that MacDougall's may have in their possession or under their control property belonging to the buyer or its principal.

(i) MacDougall's are entitled at their absolute discretion to apportion any monies received by or on behalf of the buyer against any sums owed by the buyer or its principal by or on behalf of the buyer against any sums owed by the buyer or its principal to MacDougall's.

MacDOUGALL'S

(j) Where lots are not removed, whether or not payment has been made, MacDougall's shall be permitted to remove the lot to a third party warehouse at the buyer's expense, and only release the items after payment in full has been made of removal, storage, handling, and any other costs reasonably incurred, together with payment of all other amounts due to us.

(k) To debit the bank account of the buyer, based on the debit or credit card details provided by the buyer to MacDougall's prior to the auction in question, in part or full payment of the outstanding purchase price and any other outstanding fees.

Storing and collecting the lots

30. MacDougall's will provide storage free of charge (either on their own premises or elsewhere) for purchased lots for 21 (twenty-one) days from the date of sale. If by that date collection has not taken place or MacDougall's has not received full payment together with valid delivery instructions, storage will be charged at a minimum rate of £20.00 per lot per week, subject to work's size. No lot will be released until all outstanding charges have been paid. All charges are subject to VAT, where applicable.

31. If you are sending your own authorised agent to collect property from MacDougall's on your behalf, please provide a letter of authorisation, a copy of your paid invoice and photographic ID or a completed release of liability form (provided by MacDougall's Shipping Department).

Payment methods

32. For payments by bank transfer, please direct payment in UK pounds sterling (GBP). The sender of the payment pays all fees applied by banks in relation to the payment, including any additional processing charges applied by intermediary and beneficiary banks.

Catalogue Descriptions

33. MacDougall's reserve the right to withdraw, consolidate, divide or alter any lot or combine any two or more lots.

34. All statements in the catalogues, advertisements or brochures of forthcoming sales are statements of opinion only. Illustrations in the catalogues, advertisements or brochures of forthcoming sales may not necessarily reveal imperfections in any lot. The exact physical description of any lot and the extent of any defect, restoration or repair to any lot should be ascertained by intending buyers through inspection. Each buyer by making a bid for a lot acknowledges that he has satisfied himself fully before bidding by inspection or otherwise as to all the sale conditions the physical condition of and description of the lot including but not restricted to whether the lot is damaged or has been repaired or restored.

35. MacDougall's reserve the full and absolute right to illustrate and photograph any lot placed in its hands for sale, and to use these photographs and illustrations at any time at its absolute discretion (whether or not in connection with the auction).

Guarantee

36. Notwithstanding any other terms of these conditions, if within one year after the sale the buyer of any lot gives notice in writing to the Auctioneer that in his view the lot is a counterfeit (i.e. an imitation created to deceive as to authorship, origin, date, or age); and within fourteen days after such notification the buyer returns the lot to the Auctioneer in the same condition as at the time of sale and free of third party claims; and by producing evidence, with the burden of proof to be upon the buyer, satisfies MacDougall Arts Ltd. that the lot is a counterfeit, not reflected by the description in the catalogue; then the sale of the lot will be rescinded and the purchase price of the same refunded. No lot shall be considered a counterfeit by reason only of any damage and/or restoration and/or modification work of any kind including repainting or over-painting. This limited right of refund lies with the original buyer only and is not transferable to third parties.

37. In addition to the guarantee in paragraphs above, a Consumer (being a person acting for purposes which are wholly or mainly outside that individual's trade, business, craft or profession) who successfully purchases a lot in an auction which is not a "public auction" (as defined in Regulation 5 of the 2013 Regulations) has the right to cancel the contract for the purchase of that lot within fourteen days of receiving the lot, and receive a full refund. The cancellation form is available on request. The Consumer must bear the cost of returning the goods and return them in good condition.

Data Protection

38. By agreeing to these Terms and Conditions, vendors, bidders, and buyers agree to the storage and processing of their personal information by the Auctioneer. The data may be stored in countries which do not offer equivalent protection of personal information to that offered in the UK. The Auction may be subject to video and audio recording by the Auctioneer. The Data Controller is MacDougall Arts Ltd.

Governing Law

39. These Terms and Conditions of Sale and any dispute or claim (including non-contractual disputes or claims) arising out of or in connection with them or their subject matter or formation (including any question regarding their existence, validity, termination, or breach thereof) shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of England.

Jurisdiction

40. Subject to clause 41 below, each party to these Terms and Conditions of Sale irrevocably agrees that the courts of England shall have exclusive jurisdiction to settle any dispute or claim (including non-contractual disputes or claims) arising out of or in connection with these Terms and Conditions of Sale or their subject matter or formation (including any question regarding their existence, validity, termination, or breach thereof).

MacDOUGALL'S

41. Notwithstanding what is said in clause 40:

(a) At the sole option of MacDougall, any controversy or claim arising out of or in connection with these Terms and Conditions of Sale, or their subject matter or formation (including any question regarding their existence, validity, termination or breach thereof), shall be settled by arbitration administered by the London Court of International Arbitration ("LCIA") under the LCIA Rules, which Rules are deemed to be incorporated by reference into this clause.

(b) The number of arbitrators shall be one;

(c) The seat, or legal place, shall be London, United Kingdom;

(d) The language to be used in the arbitral proceeding shall be English;

(f) If a court action has been initiated by a party other than MacDougall by reference to clause 26 of these Terms and Conditions of Sale at the time that MacDougall chooses to submit the matter to arbitration, then it is agreed that such court action is to be discontinued, unless the arbitrator finds that MacDougall has waived such right by substantially participating in the court action without having raised its right under this clause.

Translations of these Terms and Conditions of Sale

42. Where a translation of these Terms and Conditions of Sale has been provided, it is agreed that the English language version shall prevail if there is a conflict.

Severability

43. If any provision or part-provision of these Terms and Conditions of Sale is or becomes invalid, illegal or unenforceable, it shall be deemed modified to the minimum extent necessary to make it valid, legal and enforceable. If such modification is not possible, the relevant provision or part-provision shall be deemed deleted. Any modification to or deletion of a provision or part-provision under this clause shall not affect the validity and enforceability of the rest of these Terms and Conditions of Sale.
